

Corporate Landmarks

2009

The Company incorporated during 2009 in the Marshall Islands and activated in Piraeus to trade Petroleum products (particularly Gas Oil) from Black Sea to Mediterranean by utilizing its previous experience as maritime bunker supplier within Greek ports. During 2009 Petrogres performed a number of small shipments with Gas Oil;

2010

2010, decided to expand the activities in West Africa and particularly in Nigeria and Ghana, considering the area as a highly promising for oil activities. During the year, the first vessel APECUS prepared and bounded to Nigeria following a proposal from a local crude suppliers to hire her for a certain period.;

2011

2011, a second vessel OPTIMUS was also prepared and hired to Nigerian Gas Oil traders. In view of the successful operations, Petrogres management decided to enter directly into trade of crude oil instead to use its own vessels on chartering only. Petrogres, through the past period of exploiting its vessels under charter, established strong relationships and trust with product suppliers and receivers.

Corporate Landmarks

2012

In the beginning of 2012, Petrogres became an independent supplier and carrier of crude oil and signed the first Agreement with Saltpond Off Shore, a major crude oil storage terminal in Saltpond of Ghana. During 2012 Petrogres shipped about 85,000 bbls LPFO to Saltpond;

2013

As a well-known LPFO trader, Petrogres shipped about 110,000 bbls buying its products direct from small suppliers. The same year Petrogres engaged in the area two more tanker ships “INVICTUS” and “NAUTILUS”

2014

The LPFO sales increased to amounting 175,000 barrels and additionally 8,750 tons of Gas Oil. On November Petrogres signed a Partnership agreement with the small refinery in Ghana. In June 2014, Petrogres acquire one more tanker vessel M/T ENTUS, specialized for navigation into shallow waters and she is presently under repairs/preparation for sailing to Nigeria;

Corporate Landmarks

2015

On October 2015 the Company commence negotiations with a major US ship's builders of Liquefied Natural Gas carriers to lease one, with option one more LNG vessels in order to expand its activities to Liquefied Natural Gas sea transportation;
On December 2015 a new corporation –Navigas Carriers Inc.- formed in Delaware for the Liquefied Natural Gas activities

On December 2015 another new Corporation –Petrogress Oil & Gas Energy Inc.- formed in Texas with purpose to active firmness in the US Liquefied Natural Gas (LNG) industry, as a leading independent trading and logistic house;

During 2015 the Company increase its petroleum products sales to about 400,000 barrels and 10,000 tons gas Oil and strengthen its presence as oil trader in the area of West Africa;

2016

On February 2016, Petrogress completed a Reverse Merger Agreement with the Company “800 Commerce Inc” an US Public Company listed in OTC/BB, and became a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Public Company.

On April, the name of the Public Company and the trade symbol changed to Petrogress, Inc., “PGAS” respectively.